

Prof Mario Balzano, religion teacher at state high schools. A student of Roberto Rossi and Gaspare Mura, he is a Rosminian philosopher. He obtained his first master's degree in Humanities at "La Sapienza" with a thesis entitled "Artaud's legacy in Italy" published in 2009 by UNI service and his second master's degree in Religious Sciences at the "Ecclesia Mater", "Pontificia Università Lateranense" with a thesis entitled "Rosmini's Overcoming of Hegel", published in the "Rivista Rosminiana". He has published several collections of poems. Among others, he edited the book, for the International Karol Wojtyła Association, "Suffering and Abrahamic Religions", published by Loffredo Editore. Member of the Board of Directors of the International Karol Wojtyła Association and is also the contact person for the "Libera" Presidium at the "A. Meucci" High School in the city of Aprilia "Alfredo Manzoni". Member of the Scientific Committee of the Journal Professione EF - Educators, Teachers and Trainers, ed. Nep.